The Prospects of Peace are Bright and Cheering.

HARRISON'S LAST MESSAGE

Child's Reply to the President's Ultimatum Expresses the Greatest Respect for Our Flag.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The president has sent this additional correspondence to congress:

"To the senate and house of representatives: I transmit herewith additional correspondence between the government and the government of Chile, consisting of a note of Mr. Blaine, dated January 23, a reply of Mr. Blaine thereto of date of January 27, and a dispatch from Mr. Egan, our minister at Santiago, transmitting the response of Mr. Pereira, the Chilean minister of foreign affairs, to the note of Mr. Blaine of January 27, which was received by me on the 28th instant. The note of Mr. Blaine of January 27, which was received by me on the 28th instant, and its receipt announced to me until late in the afternoon of that day.

Good Prospect for Peace.

"The response of Mr. Pereira to our note of the 28th, with acceptable expressions of regret, the effective note of Mr. Blaine of the 28th, and also the request for the recall of Mr. Egan, the treatment of the incident of the attack upon the sailors of the Baltimore is so satisfactory and friendly that I am of the opinion that there is a good prospect that the difference growing out of that serious affair can now be adjusted upon terms satisfactory to the government, by the usual methods and without special powers from congress. This turn in the affairs is very gratifying to me, as I am sure it will be to the congress and to our people. The general support of the efforts of the executive to enforce the just rights of the nation in this matter has been an instructive and a valuable illustration of the unity and patriotism of our people. Should it be necessary, I will again communicate with congress upon the subject.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28, 1892.

Child's Reply to the President's Ultimatum

The president also sent to congress the additional correspondence in the Chile matter. First was Child's answer to the ultimatum of the 21st, dated January 23 and received at the state department January 26. It acknowledges the receipt of the instructions sent through Minister Egan, with the conclusions of President Harrison as stated in the former message and correspondence, but concludes as follows:

"Without any intention of opening a discussion as to the facts referred to by the communication, which I have extracted, and confining myself to the first part of the instructions of the honorable secretary of state, the undersigned must state to your excellency the regret with which the government of Chile sees the execution of the president of the United States. The undersigned must state to your excellency the regret with which the government of Chile sees the execution of the president of the United States. The undersigned must state to your excellency the regret with which the government of Chile sees the execution of the president of the United States.

Child's Regrets

"In view of our communication, and considering that up to date it has been impossible for the trial initiated by the justice of the criminal court of Valparaiso to be decided, the undersigned regards it as his duty to declare once more that the government of Chile is ready to accept the justice of the law, and by way of showing the sincerity of its feeling and the confidence which he has in the justice of his cause, he declares his willingness not to avail the decision of the examining judge, and to leave the case to the United States government, provided that the case be submitted to the consideration of the supreme court of justice at Washington to the end that that high tribunal, with its learning and integrity, may determine without appeal whether there is any ground for reparation, and in what shape it should be made."

Some Allowance Should Be Made

The letter continuing refers to the civil war that Chile had just undergone and holds that some allowance should be made, as the police were not properly organized, and did it have the necessary force to put down a disorder of such proportions. It adds that Chile does not for a moment hesitate to condemn in vigorous terms the act committed October 16 or to offer such reparation as is just.

The Matter Note

Minister Pereira's note continues: "As for the dispatch addressed under date of the 15th of December to the Chilean minister in Washington by the minister of foreign relations with the proposition that the government of Chile should accept the justice of the law, the undersigned declares that the relations with the government of the United States should be friendly and that the relations with the government of the United States should be friendly and that the relations with the government of the United States should be friendly."

Desire for Last Friendship

"The undersigned desires to already long communication to be a show in the assurance that he has therein set forth everything that can fully satisfy your government. The government of Chile desires that the relations with the government of the United States should be friendly and that the relations with the government of the United States should be friendly and that the relations with the government of the United States should be friendly."

TALK OF A CHILIAN

The Hon. Ricardo Trumbull Reviews the Difficulty

BEFORE THE N. Y. REFORM CLUB

He Says the Chilians Always Respected Us as a Nation—Egan is Mildly Criticized.

New York, Jan. 28.—In response to an invitation from the reform club of New York, the Hon. Ricardo Trumbull addressed that body on Chilean affairs tonight at their club house. The lecture room was crowded with members of the club and friends, great interest in the address of Mr. Trumbull, having been aroused during the past few days by a statement that he would make a bitter attack on Mr. Egan. The gathering was largely made up of representative men of the city. E. Elery Anderson, president of the reform club introduced Mr. Trumbull, in a brief speech, during which he stated that Mr. Trumbull would address the meeting from his standpoint, and he hoped he would express his opinions freely. As soon as the applause which followed the introduction subsided, Mr. Trumbull spoke as follows: "Mr. President and Gentlemen—I thank you very sincerely for the privilege you have extended to me of addressing you this evening on Chilean affairs. I intend to be very frank in the criticism of the acts of your country and mine. The Chilean people always have had the greatest esteem for this country and its institutions. I am glad to say, I believe whatever differences existed between our two countries have been today settled with honor to both countries. I occupy no official position for my country, and whatever I say, I say on my own responsibility. What statements I make I know them to be so."

Wants to Know About Chili

In the house Wednesday Mr. Martin (Iad) introduced a resolution calling on the president to produce all correspondence had by him, the secretary of state, the secretary of the navy, the United States minister to Chili and by other public officials of the United States, including officers of the United States navy with each other, and with any public officials of Chili upon matters concerning the republic of Chili during the Balmaceda regime and since the overthrow of that regime, as to all matters of public affairs of both the United States and Chili growing out of or connected with the existence, beginning and overthrow of the Balmaceda regime and the establishment and continuance of the present government of Chili. Referred to the committee on foreign affairs.

CHILI'S CHOICE FOR ARBITRATOR

The London Times Correspondent Says Spain and Brazil Are Favored.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—A dispatch to the Times from its correspondent at Santiago says that the Chilean government has expressed its willingness to accept the mediation of Spain or Brazil. The Chilean public, the correspondent adds, is in favor of arbitration by the United States supreme court. The same correspondent adds that the United States has not yet replied to Chile's suggestion as to arbitration. The Times correspondent also says that Chile is not popular in South America, but that she is now receiving proofs of sympathy even from the United States. In conclusion the Times correspondent assures his newspaper that the American residents of Santiago and Valparaiso publicly demand the canceling of the exequatur of the American consul at Valparaiso, adding that "the Americans here have spread a report that President Harrison will recall Mr. Egan if the Chilean answer to the note from Washington is satisfactory," which, he says, would cause a revolution of feeling in favor of the United States.

Five Missionaries Murdered

New York, Jan. 28.—Late advices which have come to this city from Rome, in the Congo Free State, bring news to the effect that the American mission on the Congo river was the scene of a terrible tragedy in December, in which five American missionaries—three men and two women—and seven native converts and servants lost their lives at the hands of murderers. All the mission buildings, schools, residences and granaries were burned to the ground and the cultivated fields laid waste.

YEAR OF BIG MONEY

For the Trotting Horse Races and Men

SPLENDID PURSES OFFERED

In the Northwest Circuit—Secretary Bronson Enthusiastic—Tim Nester's Political Prattle—Hotel News.

George Bronson of Cambridge City, Indiana, Secretary of the Western Trotting circuit, was at the Morton yesterday. "This will be the greatest season in trotting circles the country has ever seen," he said yesterday. "The Western circuit, of which Grand Rapids is a member, will hang up $500,000 in purses. The greatest amount ever before hung up was $236,000. That was by the National circuit. "I was up to look at your track this morning. That track has one of the best locations of any track in the country. If half the money were spent on that track that has been spent on half of the other tracks in the country, it would be out of sight. The general lay of the track couldn't be improved. "Do you expect to see any records broken this year?" inquired the reporter. "Any broken? Why, I shouldn't be surprised if every blessed one of them were smashed into infinitesimal splinters. Some of the greatest trotting horses have ever even will be done during the coming season, and 2,000 won't go this year. It is altogether too slow. You will see Nancy Hanks, Delmarch, Nelson, or Allerton smash that as soon as the season gets well under way. I shouldn't be surprised if two or three of them equaled or surpassed it. I don't expect to see the two-year-old record broken. I think Arion has done the best that any two-year-old can do just now; but still I shouldn't be overcome if his record was broken. Speaking of Arion, I don't believe there is three seconds between him and Monbars. Of course his record is much faster, but look at the different circumstances under which they were made. Arion made his record on a track just right, the sun and mud just right and he himself was feeling in first class condition. Monbars trotted whenever he was advertised to trot, regardless of how he felt or how his driver felt or the condition of the track. "Monbars Would Hurtle Him. In a strong, let out race, Monbars would make the California wonder rattle the clay mighty fast to come in ahead. "I think horse trotting is bound to be more popular every year. There is a better class of men taking hold of it than ever before, men who have money and who are interested in seeing fast horses trained. They don't care so much about the profits of the horse business as they do about having good horses. The gambling industry is being driven out of horse trotting and into racing. Horse racing is essentially a gambling institution. It exists only for the sake of giving men something to bet on. It is fast gambling. It doesn't take long to run a heat, and money can change often. There is no beauty, no pleasure and no merit in horse racing. Horse trotting is something to admire, but a running match is only an unscientific exhibition of mere speed. "Speaking of the kite-shaped track, Mr. Bronson said: "You may rest assured that the trotting done this year will be mainly on regulation tracks. Horsemen as a class are not howling enthusiasts on the subject of kite-shaped tracks. The public don't like them, and so you may rest assured that the kite-shaped track will not be in it. On a kite-shaped track you see the horses only when they start and when they come under the wire. The rest of the race is lost. When a man goes to a race he wants to see the horses trot. It isn't especially satisfying to see them score and never get another glimpse of them until they are at the wire again. Besides the tracks are dangerous. I believe there were forty-eight collisions at Independence last year. It is practically impossible to keep them from running into each other on the small end of the track."

NOT SURE OF NELSON.

But Mr. Browne is Sure That Our Track is a Dandy.

Samuel A. Browne of Kalamazoo, the noted horseman and member of the firm of Stockbridge & Browne, arrived at the Morton yesterday. "Just came up to attend the meeting of the Horsemen's association this evening," he said. "I want to do what little I can to help the thing along. I think the idea of having the horsemen take care of $20,000 worth of fair association's bonds is an excellent one. To my mind it is the best and most business-like measure that could have been desired. The horsemen can now have a track that they have a real personal interest in. I think the scheme to build a club house is a good one. If I happen to have any spare money, I may help the thing along. I want to stay with the boys in all this enterprise."
